PIRATES ABOARD:
ADMITTED STUDENTS LEARN ABOUT LIFE AT ECU
Do you have students who have been admitted? Encourage them to attend Pirates Aboard! This special full-day event day is geared specifically toward admitted students and their families, and includes time spent with students’ intended major; information sessions from financial aid, housing, dining and student life; campus tours; and an opportunity to visit the different styles of residence halls. Over 200 ECU faculty, staff and current students will be here to answer questions.

Saturday, March 30, from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on ECU’s main campus. Learn more and register at go.ecu.edu/piratesaboard.

Admitted Students need to complete several important steps before the fall. Visit www.ecu.edu/admissions/admit/freshmen.cfm for instructions.

Apply Now! If you have students who have not submitted their application yet, now is the time! Our Fall 2019 class is filling up quickly.

COUNSELOR EVENTS
The ECU Counselor Advisory Committee met on campus in December. Twenty North Carolina counselors and advisors attended this annual two-day conference (ECU Admissions provides meals and overnight accommodations). Some highlights:
• Campus walking tour
• Touring Army ROTC offices and virtual range
• Visiting the Pirate Academic Success Center for tips and techniques
• Dinner with Dr. Mitchelson, ECU Provost and Senior Vice Chancellor
• Presentations from Nursing, Honors College, College of Allied Health, Academic Advising to name a few.

Contact Patti Clements at clementsp15@ecu.edu if you are interested in joining this collaborative advisory.

Counselor Breakfasts
This fall we greeted over 100 guidance counselors for breakfast at locations across North Carolina. You were able to meet the admissions counselor from your region and hear about some of our most competitive programs. Contact Jacqui Duca ducaj@ecu.edu to be on the guest list for next fall.

2019 Spring Events

Visit
The best way to get to know ECU is to visit. This year we have several ways that admitted students can visit campus and get to know more about ECU and their intended academic major.

Admitted Student Days Program Specific Information Sessions
Designed to give admitted students a deep dive into some of our most popular programs, each event will include activities such as departmental info sessions, lab and facility tours, info from Academic Advising, and the opportunity to hear from current students. For more info and to register, visit go.ecu.edu/admittedFridays.
College of Engineering and Technology, February 22
Careers in Medicine, February 22
College of Health and Human Performance, March 15
Thomas Harriot College of Arts and Sciences, March 22
College of Nursing, April 5
College of Business, April 12

Admitted Student Information Sessions
Visit on Mondays (at 10 a.m.) and Fridays (at 2 p.m.) and get our tour with a twist for admitted students! Get information on the next step in the enrollment process, ask questions with a panel of current ECU students, and take a walking tour of campus. Register at ecu.edu/admissions/visit.

Saturday Information Sessions
We invite you to join fellow prospective students at ECU by signing up for one of our Saturday campus visit sessions. The morning will include an information session and a campus tour. Please note that our information session is about thirty minutes and the campus tour is a walking tour and may last an hour and a half. Check-in 15 minutes before the start of the information session. Registration is required at go.ecu.edu/SaturdayTours.
10:00 a.m. - Noon: January 26, February 9, March 2, April 27

Pirates at Panera
ECU Admissions counselors are spending the day in your community. Need info about applying or submitting an enrollment deposit? Prospective students can drop by and get answers. Call 252-328-6640 to find out where our counselors will be next.

Pirates Aboard! Admitted Student Day
This full Saturday event includes information sessions from financial aid, housing, dining and student life; campus tours; and an opportunity to visit residence halls. See details on page 1.
Saturday, March 30, from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Register at go.ecu.edu/piratesaboard.

Summer Freshmen Orientation
ECU offers 10 orientation sessions over the summer. These two-day visits include advising and course registration. In addition, students learn about the resources available to be successful – academically, socially and emotionally. Orientation registration will become available in March.
Pirates in Your Town
Admitted Student Receptions

ECU wants to get to know our incoming class of 2023. Pirates in Your Town Receptions are a great way for your students to get to know the university, our academic programs, fellow admitted students from their region and get a taste for the many opportunities ahead. Parents and students can ask questions of ECU Admissions, Housing and Financial Aid staff.

College Fair in Your Community

Is your school hosting a college fair, parent night or college panel this spring? ECU would love to be there to help answer questions about the application and admissions process as well as inform about academic majors, career possibilities, scholarship information and student life. Send invitations to your event to: collegefairs@ecu.edu.

Complete the FAFSA by 2/14

ECU’s priority financial aid deadline is February 14. Students may apply for aid before receiving an admissions decision, however, no notification of award will be made until the student has been admitted into the university. Include ECU’s Federal School Code 002923 to ensure that ECU receives your information.

ECU’s Fall 2018 Freshman Profile

For the fall 2018 semester, we received nearly 20,000 applications for an incoming class of 4,400. The middle 50% of academic credentials for applicants offered admission were:

- Unweighted GPA: 3.10 – 3.41
- SAT: 1070 – 1190
- ACT: 19 – 24

Meet Our New Staff

Catherine Young joined the Admissions team in March as counselor. Originally from North Georgia, she earned her degree from Piedmont College. Catherine serves the Sandhills region (Union to Harnett County) and New Jersey. Contact her for a visit to your school. Catherine may be reached at youngcat18@ecu.edu or 252-328-1709.

HEALTH AND HUMAN PERFORMANCE

With more than 3,650 undergraduate students and almost 450 graduate students, ECU’s College of Health and Human Performance is one of the largest colleges at ECU and is a leader in research and service. Last year, the college awarded scholarships valued at $180,150 to 139 outstanding ECU students.

Degrees offered include:

- Health Education and Promotion: Environmental Health, Public Health Studies
- Human Development and Family Science: Birth Through Kindergarten Teacher Education, Family and Community Services, Family and Consumer Sciences Education
- Interior Design and Merchandising: Interior Design, Fashion Merchandising and Consumer Studies
- Kinesiology: Exercise Physiology, Health Fitness Specialist, Physical Education, Sports Study
- Recreation and Leisure Studies: Recreation and Park Management, Recreational Therapy
- Social Work

Developing Leaders

The College of Health and Human Performance is dedicated to the promotion of health and well-being. ECU’s programs teach students to think critically, strategize effectively, perform in a team environment and be successful.

Career Readiness

The ECU Career Center provides personalized coaching and support to students, including interview prep, resume review, and job search resources. Career Fairs connect students with future internship and career opportunities. Graduates have high job placement rates and many go on to receive advanced degrees in medicine, allied health, research and other disciplines.

Military Science ROTC

Air Force and Army ROTC are educational opportunities offered in the College of Health and Human Performance. These programs are designed to prepare men and women to become officers while completing an undergraduate, graduate or other professional degree program. ROTC is designed to prepare students to assume positions of increasing responsibility and leadership.
