NEW PROGRAMS IN ENGLISH AND BUSINESS

The new BS in Professional Writing and Information Design prepares students for careers in writing, editing, and designing content for industry, government, and organizations. Professional communicators and information designers create materials in print and electronic forms that help people turn information into knowledge. These professionals are in demand. We will accept students into this program beginning in Fall 2021. Contact your area counselor or Dr. Donna Kain, Associate Professor, at kaind@ecu.edu for more information.

The College of Business is offering a new human resource management concentration as part of the BS in Business Administration Management degree program spearheaded by Dr. Craig Williams, Department of Management faculty.

ECU offers the broadest spectrum of undergraduate programs in North Carolina. Combine that with an outstanding student life and you can see why ECU is consistently a top-choice university.

HIGHLIGHT
MEET OUR NEW STAFF

This February East Carolina University welcomed Cortisha Skinner as the new Transfer Counselor for Admissions. Originally from Eastern North Carolina, Cortisha has worked as a graduation coach leading students to completion for several years.
